

A message from your Student Support Services Team

As PACC Adult Ed begins a new way of educating our students, through remote teaching and online learning, your Student Support Services team would like to assure you we are still available to provide both academic and social/emotional support as you need. Although our methods of communication will have to be different, we are still committed to providing you with:

- Assistance with your courses
- Someone to lean on and talk to
- Financial assistance and guidance for EQ students
- Mentoring
- Assisting with communication with your teachers
- Social support
- Encouragement and feedback
- Academic programming and guidance
- Google Meet/Hangouts

As a reminder, your Student Services team is:
